NEW RADOM CLUES
INTENSIFY MYSTERY

Sedan Automobile Sought in Strange Death of Woman Physician.

BOY TELLS ODD STORY

Says He Saw Motor Car and Two Men Administering to Unconscious Woman.

AUTOPSY TO BE DELAYED

Mrs. Brodsky Insists Evidence Shows Poison Victim Was Murdered.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
BRIDGEPORT, Dec. 5.—More tangled than ever is the web of mystery about the death of Dr. Elizabeth L. Radom of this city, whose body was found on the beach road adjoining the estate of Anna B. Jennings of Fairfield, early Saturday morning.

The police are trying to find the sedan automobile in which Dr. Radom was seen with two men and a woman at 12:30 o'clock Friday night a mile from the spot where her body was found.

Late to-day Charles Matyas, 18, of 73 Churchhill street, Fairfield, called at the home of Dr. Emanuel S. Brodsky of Park avenue, a friend of Dr.
Radom, and told Dr. Brodsky an interesting story. He said:

"Friday night about 8:30 o'clock I was walking from my home, near Ash Creek, to Fairfield Centre to buy ammunition to go duck hunting. In a white house near Miss Jennings's estate I saw a light burning. I looked in the window and saw a woman stretched out on a couch. She appeared to be unconscious.

"There were two men in the room, one about 25 and one about 30. I saw one of the men pour some brown liquid out of a quart bottle into a glass and give the drink to the woman on the couch. There was a sedan standing in front of the house. I didn't stay around there, but went on to Fairfield and didn't think much about it until I saw in the paper that this dead woman, Dr.
Radom, was supposed to have been seen in a sedan of the same make as the one I saw in front of this house."

Uncle Sam as Educator Helps 90,000 Veterans

UNCLE SAM is now the biggest school teacher in America. In Government controlled institutions, or those under its indirect supervision, 90,000 veterans of the world war are students.

Director Forbes of the Veterans' Bureau, said today that the new record of enrollment shows that the United States is engaged in the largest educational proposition ever undertaken by any Government.

The men after honorable service under the American flag are being fitted despite their physical handicaps to take their places again among the nation's producers.

Police was out of town when Matyas visited Dr. Brodsky's house and Sheriff H. R. Elwood of Fairfield was away looking up another angle of the case.
They are expected to take him to the vicinity of the beach road to-morrow in an effort to have him pick out if possible the house where he said he saw the woman on the couch and the sedan automobile.

At Fairfield Beach men with Constable Arthur A. J. Bennett of Fairfield Beach Club, a quarter of a mile from the spot where Dr. Radom's body was found, a dozen physician's gauze sponges, a piece of muslin marked in ink, "Doctors' sponges, 12" and a piece of blank paper inscribed "Longacre 6168."

The piece of muslin was taken to the home of Dr. Brodsky, compared with handwriting of Dr. Radom in Mrs. Brodsky's possession and found to be of the same kind. Mrs. Brodsky was convinced that this fact proved that Dr.
Radom some time on Friday night was at the Fairfield Beach Club.

The telephone number "Longacre 6168" is that of an investment company at 62 West Fortieth street, New York city. Inquiry at that number elicited the information that Dr. Radom had no account there and was unknown.

A reddish stain, apparently caused by dye from a coat of the same color as that found on Dr. Radom's body, marked the gauze sponges, the muslin and the slip of paper with the telephone number on it.

Suicide Theory Doubted.
Mrs. Sasha Brodsky, wife of Dr.
Brodsky, said to-day:

"So many mysterious features have developed since Dr. Radom's body was found at the side of that deserted road that I am convinced now she was murdered. It does not seem to me that she would have chosen that spot to commit suicide. The position of her body when it was found seems to me to indicate that it was laid there after she was dead."

Bacon Wakeman, prosecutor of Fairfield, said it was his personal opinion that the death of Dr. Radom was not one of suicide.

Coroner John J. Phelan said no autopsy on the body of Dr. Radom will be ordered until the police investigation develops definite facts that warrant such action. The body will be buried in Hartford on Tuesday. It can be exhumed any time within forty days if developments in the case warrant it.

It was learned that Dr. Radom had an appointment to assist Dr. J. H. Beaudry, Jr., with an operation on a patient Saturday morning.

22 KILLED IN CRASH
OF READING TRAINS

Fire Follows Head-on Collision in Philadelphia's Suburban District.

DEATH TOLL MAY GROW

Responsibility for Wreck Not Fixed by Company's Officials.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 5.—Additional bodies recovered from the smoldering debris and deaths of two of the injured to-night, increased the list of fatalities as a result of the head-on collision between Philadelphia and Reading Railway suburban passenger trains to-day to twenty-two. Four of the twenty-five or more injured were reported late to-night in a critical condition. It is feared other bodies still are concealed by the hot ashes and twisted framework of the two wooden cars which caught fire and were consumed.

With few exceptions the bodies were burned beyond recognition and the only method of identification was by a check up of those known to have been aboard the trains. Most of the victims lived at Southampton and Newton, small towns about twenty miles from Philadelphia.
A canvass of the residents to learn who boarded the trains was being made tonight at both places.

Investigations by officials of the company to fix the responsibility were declared to-night to be "progressing," but other than the statement that the southbound train apparently had overrun its orders, no announcement was forthcoming as to the results of the inquiries.

W. C. Eckert, division superintendent, who was at the scene of the wreck virtually all day, said to-night he had seen fifteen bodies taken out of the wreckage. "My men tell me there were twenty-two in all," he added. "We will clean it up during the night, but I fear those who remain under the burned cars will no longer be separate bodies. Some no doubt have been burned to cinders."

TEARS CAN'T SAVE HER
PARADISE BIRD WINGS

Lynx-eyed Customs Men Too Keen for Woman Landing.

Mrs. Italia Nebiolo, wife of a restaurant owner of Detroit, who accompanied her, arrived yesterday from a visit to Italy wearing as a decoration to her velvet hat the gorgeous wings of a bird of paradise, three feet long. Customs men who had noted the resplendent outfit coming up the bay, and had decided that it would have to go into the discard, the plumage being contraband in Uncle Sam's domain, failed to see it on the lady when she appeared on the pier.

She had made an effort to conceal it under a veil, which was too small to do the trick, and she had to give it up, although she pleaded tearfully, saying she supposed that the law was not applicable to feathers brought in in hats.

Coat and Trousers

Evening Clothes have returned to their own! Not for years have formal clothes been so universally worn. Men are wearing them who have never before done so and men who have always owned evening clothes are wearing them more frequently.

This season the man who appears at any function after six, dressed in business clothes, finds himself unpleasantly conspicuous.

Unnecessarily. For at Macy's, formal attire of assured quality and correct style is offered at the lowest possible price.

You'll Make No Mistake
If You Give HIM a Reefer!

For the touch of smartness that they add, for the protecting comfort and warmth they give,—men want reefers.

The styles that they would—and do—buy for themselves await your approval here, very modest in price, very assertive in quality.

Imported Reefers

Selected by our own expert in Europe. Many models,—from the fine, close weaves of the Swiss to the heavy, rich shell and novelty stitches in all silk that are typical of the best London shops. From as little as $9.74 up to $16.74 (with Federal tax additional).

Silk Knitted Reefers

But after all, the best American makers may well be proud of their product. And assembled here are the best of their offerings. Plain colors and shades, stripes and heather mixtures.
From $9.74 down to $3.89 (with Federal tax additional).

Woolen Reefers

Great, generous reefers done in the finer wools of Scotland and England. Plain weaves, heathers and camels' hair,—an assortment of which we're proud. These at $1.94 and upwards to $12.74 (with Federal tax additional).

Macy's—Main Floor, 35th Street.

Socks and Gloves for Men

Men buy such things for themselves, of course they do—but then again, gloves and socks are so easy for their women folk to select for them—and consequently make such more-than-usually nice gifts.

Take gloves, for instance. We have

Imported English Cape Walking Gloves for $2.19 They are made of selected leathers, have gusseted fingers and single draw backs, and are Prix seam sewn. One button. In street shades of tan.

Seamless Wool
Lined Mocha
Buck Gloves for $3.89

One clasp. Prix seam sewn. In shades of reindeer, brown and gray.

Reindeer Shade Fur
Lined Mocha
Buck Gloves, $3.44

Prix seam sewn, one clasp, with gusseted fingers.

And as for socks, there are

Mercerized Lisle Socks 69c pair Full fashioned socks, with double heel, sole and toe, and an elastic ribbed cuff top. In black, cordovan, white, gray and navy. Sizes 9 1/2 to 11 1/2.

Macy's—Main Floor, Center and Front.

The Problem of a Gift for Your Motoring Friends is Solved—

To the ardent motorist there could be no gift more sure of a warm welcome than one of these warm motor-robos.

Of plush (plain, silk or mohair) or of all wool, as fancy and purse may dictate. The woolen ones, of course, in steamer rug style.

Rubber interlinings and muff pockets add to the comfort of some of them.

At $8.44 and $69.75 with many prices in between.

Macy's—Fifth Floor, Center.
